

Cross-ownership will further the elimination of independent voices in the media. Please maintain and strengthen regulations which protect the public from one corporation or interest group controlling a disproportionate share of a regional news market.